WINNERS AT YOUTH ASSOCIATION NIGHT

AYA Group Given Awards At Annual Sports Night

More than fifty members of the Arlington Youth Association were given awards at the fifth annual sports night event of the organization on Friday evening, November 18, at the Arlington High School auditorium. Several hundred boys attended, together with parents and friends of the youngsters, whose organization is sponsored by the Arlington Auxiliary Police Association.

RIFLE TEAM AWARDS

In the past, the awards have been made only for baseball, but on Friday night, outstanding members of the A.Y.A. Rifle Club also received awards. Bump Hadley, radio sports commentator and former major league pitcher, was the master of ceremonies. A total of 38 sports jackets, suitably inscribed, were given out during the evening. Seventeen players on the "Red Sox" the champion team of the A.Y.A. senior division baseball team, were presented jackets, and the same number of players on the junior division champion nine "the Blue Jays" were also given jackets, along with jackets to four members of the rifle club.

The rifle club jackets were presented by Bump Hadley, while four major league baseball players gave out the jackets to the youthful ballplayers. They included (Continued on page four)

Residents Of Outlying Areas Hopeful Of Added Bus Service

Public Hearing On Petition For Extension Of Service Of Lovell Bus Line, Draws Crowd

Welcome

At Kiwanis

Lt. James J. Flynn of the Arlington police department, has been welcomed as a new member of the Arlington Kiwanis club.

ON HUNTING TRIP

Frederick W. Damon, of 275 Broadway and Edward A. Richards, popular businessmen of the town, recently enjoyed a hunting trip through northern New Hampshire, with the hope of making a Thanksgiving kill.

The public hearing held at the State House on Monday morning November 21st, before the Department of Public Utilities, on the petitions of hundreds of interested citizens, to grant permission to the Lovell Bus Line to extend its services so as to pick up passengers in East Lexington and the Arlmont Village area of Arlington, was well attended by residents of the area affected.

Mr. Elmer Wilson of Arlmont Village, Mr. Lawrence E. Corcoran, President of the Arlington Heights Improvement Association, Selectman Marcus Sorensen, of Arlington, and Rep. Henry E. Keenan, appeared before the D. P. U. Commissioners and explained at length the need for this service by the residents of this area. If the petition is granted, this will mean direct service to Harvard Square for the people of the Arlmont Village section.

It is expected that the Department of Public Utilities will make a decision on this matter within the next few weeks.

Board Of Public Works Explains Delay In Completing Parking Lot

For the benefit of countless inquiring shoppers and local merchants of the town, the Arlington Board of Public Works announces that the work on the new parking area has run into several unexpected snags, which prevents its completion at once.

Foremost is the fear that funds available at this time for the work under the jurisdiction of the Board of Public Works, may be inadequate to finish the grading, lighting, drainage, and surfacing of the former Peirce and Winn property.

Realizing that it has been the subject of considerable criticism for the seeming unexplained delays (Continued on page four)

Miss Helen Najarian Bride Of Chelsea Man

One of the most distinguished of the pre-holiday weddings was solemnized on Sunday afternoon, October 16th, at the Armenian Holy Trinity Church in Boston, when before the altar richly decorated with fall flowers and lighted tapers, Miss Helen Najarian, of 68 Egerton Road, Arlington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Najarian, of the same address, exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Ned Hartunian, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hartunian, of Chelsea, in a double ring ceremony. Rev. H. Toumaych, pastor of the church, was the officiating clergyman assisted by six members of the clergy, all friends of the families. The bride was given away by her father. The wellknown organist, Mr. Alan Hovhannes, rendered selections, and the soprano soloist, Miss Alice Caprieland, delighted the audience with her solos.

Following the church ceremony, a wedding reception, attended by more than four hundred guests, was held at the Normandy Ballroom, at Norumbega Park.

The bride, radiant in her wedding gown of white satin and rare

Chantilly lace with headpiece of white satin, lace-trimmed, carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, with orchid center.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Martiza Dinjian, was lovely in her (Continued on page four)

Famous Philanthropist To Speak At Boys' Club Nov. 30

Arlingtonians will have a rare opportunity on Wednesday evening, November 30th, when at the formal opening of the Arlington Boys' Club new bowling alleys, Mr. J. Wilard Hayden, president of the five million dollar Charles Hayden Foundation, will be the guest speaker of the evening.
At this time the Arlington Boys' Club will celebrate an Open House Party between the hours of 7:00 and 9:00 P.M. at the Pond Lane clubhouse.
Most important event of the evening will be the formal opening of the newly renovated bowling alleys. Mr. J. Wilard Hayden, the president of the Charles Hayden Foundation, will be present with Arlington Boys' Club officers.
The warm interest of Mr. Hayden has made possible the refinishing of not only the club's bowling alleys, but also the Locker and Shower Rooms and some much needed repairs to the outside of the building.

A Basketball Jamboree featuring teams from the club's house groups in the Intermediate and Senior Leagues with scrimmages within the 100 lb. Midget Squad and the big boys of the Boys' Club Championship Varsity squad is also on the program.
Speed bag punching will also be demonstrated during the evening.
Several of the Boys' Clubs many group clubs will see action in their periods in the Crafts Rooms with Leathercraft, Metal Craft, Plaster-casting, Photography and Wood-working on tap for the evening.
Activities in the clubs game rooms will involve Juniors, Intermediates and Seniors in a wide variety of games ranging from Ping-Pong to checkers and bridge as played by the fine players in the Senior Department.

The Arlington Boys' Club Wranglers under the direction of Bob Munstedt will also entertain during the evening.
Mr. Maurice Sandler, Boys' Club President, cordially invites all parents and adults and civic-minded groups to be guests of the Boys' Club on a come and see tour of the building and its facilities in actual use.
The Arlington Boys' Club Board is anxious to have the whole community down for the Open House Party and to inspect the building and the many improvements that have been made in the past two years, changes made necessary by the constantly growing membership of the finest youngsters from all sections of Arlington.

Arlington High Conducts Follow-Up Of Graduates

A one hundred percent followup of the 461 A. H. S. graduates, Class of 1949 conducted by the Guidance Department reveals that almost 54 percent of the class are attending schools and colleges, and of these, 31 percent of the class are attending four year, degree granting colleges and universities. The other 23 percent of this group are full-time students at junior colleges, business, preparatory, hospital training, art and technical schools. Colleges represented by this graduating class include most of the New England institutions as well as University of Michigan, Barnard, University of Indiana, Otterbein, Tulane, University of Idaho and University of Miami.
Those who have gone into full-time employment make up 41 percent of the entire class. Of this group more than half were placed through the Guidance Department prior to their graduation, with the placement activity continuing through the summer months. At the time of the survey all but six boys and two girls among those seeking work were employed. In two cases, boys had been working but had been laid-off at the time they a graduate refused to accept the type of work available and for which he was best suited and he was seeking employment in a field in which there were no openings. There were others in the unemployment group who apparently were not too anxious to work and who would not keep evening appointments with counselors when urged to come into the Guidance for assistance.
General office workers, office machine operators, store clerks, typists, stenographers, messengers, and stock clerks account for three-fifths of those unemployed. These people were definitely trained in the high school for the jobs in which they are now engaged. In the employed group there is also a professional ice skater, a bank teller and an interior decorator.

A few boys have been placed in building construction as carpenters' helpers, and apprentices in masonry, bricklaying, plumbing

ARLINGTON SEEKS CLINCHER IN THANKSGIVING CONTEST

By FRANK MAHONEY

Arlington High's undefeated, bowl forgotten, football club, is getting in shape to face its well prepared and traditional rival, Melrose. If Arlington wins this game they will clinch the Class "A" championship. The annual Thanksgiving Day game and the last of the season for the two clubs will be played in the Warren A. Pierce field at 10 a.m. on Thursday morning, November 25.

Arlington, which defeated the Class "B" league leaders, Watertown, last week by a score of 32-0, will go into the game with an impressive record of seven wins out of seven starts.

Melrose, however, who has been winless all year, was struck with another misfortune last week. The High School announced that four or five regular starters would be ineligible for this weeks game, due to examination results.

It appears that two or three years ago Melrose was in much the same position as Arlington is today. On that Thanksgiving Day Melrose beat Arlington but only in the last minute of play.

TOCZYLOWSKI STATES —

"This is a traditional game, records mean nothing, spirit has won many a game for the underdog, but don't worry, we'll see that Arlington is on its toes for this one."

Tickets for the game have been selling fast. However, if you are still looking for a ticket, try the High School office sometime Tuesday afternoon. There may be a few around. The starting lineup —

COACH LOWDER ASKS GREATER SUPPORT FOR LOCAL HOOPSTERS

The football season is rapidly drawing to the final act. It seems a shame that all of the cheers that helped young high school heroes to run up and down the gridiron must now be put away and discarded until another year.

This could all be avoided states George Lowder, head of the Arlington High basketball team, if the fans would show a little of the football enthusiasm for the basketball team. "After all" said Coach Lowder, "A lot of the same fellows are out for this sport too, and for that matter many are better basketball players than they are football players."

There are some 50 boys out for the hoopsters this year. Dick De Salisbury 38 185 RHB

IMPORTANT FACTS ON SUPERFLUOUS HAIR

The common everyday type of superfluous hair usually encountered by the skilled operators of the Thermiquetron System of Epilation has its primary basis in heredity and stimulating factors.

The constant use of temporary methods (tweezing, shaving, wax and cream depilatories and abrasives) in many instances may be irritating and stimulating the very growth which is sought to be eliminated. At best temporary methods must be employed to gain short periods of relief. To all who wish to banish unwanted hair forever, only a guaranteed permanent and safe method is the solution.

Many people believe permanent relief means undergoing severe and drawnout treatments. They are most pleasantly surprised to find that the Thermiquetron System and the skilled technique employed, quickly and safely relieves them of their problem, with absolutely no discomfort. Science has at least made it possible for men and, especially, women to be free of this problem and all mistaken consultation and treatment by the operators of the Thermiquetron System of Epilation.

Bids Open

An invitation for bids for the alterations to the store at 175A Massachusetts avenue, Arlington, to be used as a branch library for the use of the residents of the East end of the town, has been made public by the Board of Trustees of the Robbins Library. The date set for the opening of the bids is November 30th, at eight p.m. Stanley M. Ryerson has been named architect for the project.

PARKING LOT —

since the court case settled the price at $64,000, plus interest, the Board feels that with true facts available to the public, criticism will be held to a minimum.

The original amount asked of the Town Meeting of 1947, it will be recalled, was $11,000 covering the entire work, which sum was fixed by the Planning Board, in consultation with the engineering experts, Fay, Spofford and Thorndike, of Boston. This amount was then believed to be inadequate in the light of rising construction costs when work could be started following the court case, and therefore an article inserted in the town warrant for the special town meeting held on October 17, called for additional funds. The additional sum of only two thousand dollars was recommended by the Finance Committee, and so voted at the special meeting. Although the Board feels that this total of $13,000 is not adequate, it will undertake to go as far as possible with the sum available, and if the Department is not able to have the work done by its own labor or outside contractors, for the sum of $13,000, the parking space cannot possibly be completed until next spring, following the appropriation of more funds at the annual meeting in 1950.

A tremendous drainage problem has arisen in the area. Water following a severe rainstorm would inundate surrounding property when the area is surfaced with blacktop. The Board is of the opinion that the pipe lines for drainage should be laid now, before the surfacing is done, and as there are no adequate facilities now underground, a new line must be laid, with outlet at Mill Brook, in back of Mount Pleasant Cemetery, and this work alone would eat up a major portion of the appropriated funds.

Another major problem is the lighting of the area. Chief Bullock has made it known emphatically that he cannot be responsible for crime in this area, if it is not lighted, and here again the Board is of the opinion that the underground electrical wiring should be accomplished before the surfacing is attempted.

One of the many suggestions is that several dry wells be dug beneath the area, and if the sub-soil is of sand or gravel, and not of clay or solid rock, such wells might solve the drainage problem. However, the state engineers have been called in and are engaged in working out their opinions on the matter.

WEDDING BELLS —

gown of deep green satin with a gown with headress of yellow roses completing her costume, Master Charles Dermenjian, Jr. 4, was ringbearer.

The bridesmaids included the Misses Mary Najarian, Gloria Mahibian, Grace Hartunian, a cousin of the bride and Irene Najarian, sister of the bride. Two of the bridesmaids were gowned in satin period gowns, with old fashioned trim. The other two bridesmaids wore mauve satin period gowns, and carried old fashioned bouquets.

The bride's mother was distinguished with seed pearls, with her corsage of pink roses, while the mother of the bridegroom was lovely in her rose gown, yoked with lace, with an aqua carnation corsage.

The best man attending the bridegroom was Mr. Deran Dintjian. The ushers included Messrs. George Hartunian, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Keverian, George Kashian and Henry Hartunian.

The bride is a graduate of the Arlington High School, Class of 1946. She was associated with the Glee club of the school, the orchestra, the Gilbert and Sullivan Club, and the jazz band. She graduated from the Hickox secretarial school with an honor key. Mr. Hartunian is a graduate of the Chelsea high school, class of 1943. He served in the army air corps for three years during the recent war, and is at the present time enrolled as a student at the Industrial Technical school in Boston.

Following their return from an extended honeymoon motor trip to Montreal and Quebec, the couple will be at home to their friends, at 68 Egerton road, Arlington.

Hold Day Of Recollection

The St. James Branch, M. C. W. Guild, will conduct a Day of Recollection at the retreat house of the Society of the Divine Word, Miramar, on Sunday, November 27. The bus will leave St. James church at 8:30 and will return at the conclusion of the services. Those interested in taking the trip are asked to contact the Guild regent, Mrs. P. Cuneen, 22 Whittemore street, or Mrs. Frank Lansing, 33 Berkeley street.

Visiting In California

Mrs. Rose Campobasso, of Decatur street, is enjoying an extended visit in California. She is accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Dominic Buselli, who plans to return home the first of next month.

Walt Drogo and Joe Dobson, of the Red Sox, and Earle Torgeson, of the Braves, and Hank Camilli, formerly of the Braves. Oakie O'Conner Brooklyn scout, also present and spoke.

To the most cooperative boy on each of the sixteen teams in both the senior and junior baseball leagues, trophies in the nature of a baseball player on a pedestal, were awarded.

Peter Cooney, who played with the "Cardinals" of the senior league the past season, was given a special award — a larger trophy of a baseball player — as being the most valuable A.Y.A. ball player of the year. This award was donated by the Arlington chapter No. 49 Disabled American Veterans, and the presentation was made on behalf of the chapter by the Commander, Michael J. Miscone.

During the evening, Walter Smith, the "singing cop," entertained with solos, and the A.Y.A. orchestra rendered many selections. Warren J. Ryan, A.Y.A. baseball commissioner, was chairman of the committee in charge, which included William Sinclair, president of the Auxiliary Police; George Cobb, Leonard Russell, William Hanlon, John Toomey and Charles Scannell, the co-ordinator.

MISSIONARY GROUP HEARS
TALK ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church held its November meeting, on Monday afternoon, November 14, featuring a fine program which was much enjoyed by a large audience.

Tea was served by the Tower group, and the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Gordon Sanders, president. At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. Earl Bolton program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Livingston Lo-mas, of Needham, who gave a most interesting talk on "Our Baptist Family at Work in Europe". Miss Doris Bromley had charge of the devotional service and special music was provided by Miss Ann Emery, who rendered two piano solos. Mrs. Sanders gave the concluding prayer.

Honored At B. C.

Thomas A. Murphy, 917 Massachusetts avenue, was recently honored with the appointment of secretary of the Boston College student council. Murphy is a sophomore at the College of Arts and Sciences and plans to major in economics. He is a graduate of St. Agnes church and of the Arlington high school and is a member of the Marquette debating society at the Heights. His brother, John L. Jr., a senior at the college, is a member of the local Board of Public Works and a wellknown Arlington attorney.

Dutcher Honored

Town Moderator Ernest W. Dav- is announced the appointment of Herbert M. Dutcher, as the representative of the Arlington Planning Board on the committee on advanced programming and budgeting, to succeed Serop Basmajian, who resigned from the Planning Board some months ago.

"I wish I could begin to tell you what this new Long Distance Center means to you. With our new switchboards and dialing equipment, we can now complete most of your long distance calls even to places that are thousands of miles away, twice as fast as we ever did before—and in many cases as fast as you can get your next door neighbor.

"When you call your mother in San Francisco, for example, we can now dial her telephone directly without assistance along the way... and lots of times we'll have you in touch with her in less than half a minute."

A MIRACLE OF SPEED

This remarkable speed in handling long distance calls is made possible by one of the most significant telephone developments of recent years — operator toll dialing. For New England, the key to this faster, better service is the new Long Distance Center in Boston.

With confidence in the future, this huge investment provides the building and equipment designed to function with other similar Centers throughout the nation. It is one of our major postwar construction projects to bring you better telephone service.

And just as always, you'll reach the long distance operator — friendly, courteous and ready to help you.

Science has provided the speed — the operator will still provide the spirit.

Public Invited To Inspect New Telephone Developments

Conducted tours through operating floors and a special exhibit to demonstrate newest telephone developments will feature open house at the new long distance building of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company, 185 Franklin street, Boston, on business days starting November 16, and continuing through December 2, except Saturdays and November 28. Visiting hours each day will be from 9:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

The building houses the regional operating center which was placed in service last Sunday to permit telephone operators in Boston and many other New England cities to dial long distance calls.
Tours with trained guides will afford views of the dial switching equipment and of operators working at the switchboards.

Dialing by these operators in the Franklin street building is not the familiar procedure of turning a small wheel. Instead, they push small keys, similar to those on a calculating machine, which send out musical tones to actuate dial switching mechanisms.

In the special exhibit called --
"Looking Ahead With The Bell System" there will be a demonstration unit which not only gives a close-up of the new operating method but permits visitors to listen to the musical tones as they go over the line to set up connections. Demonstrators will dial calls directly to called telephones as far away as Sacramento, Cal. The distant telephones can be reached in a matter of seconds.

The exhibit also includes a working model of the Bell System's radio relay transmission facilities between Boston and New York which bring network television programs to Boston on a narrow microwave beam. Visitors to the exhibit may listen to music carried on a demonstration beam and see how it is relayed by seven radio stations on seven hilltops.

Another working display will present the Transistor, an amazingly simple little device capable of performing efficiently nearly all the functions of an ordinary vacuum tube. Recently developed by the Bell Telephone Laboratories.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Mrs. C. W. Esterbrook

The many Arlington friends of Mrs. C. W. Esterbrook, the former Ethel Rowe, daughter of the late Matthew and Catherine Rose, of this town, will regret to know of her death at the St. Luke hospital in Spokane Washington, on October 31st.

Mrs. Esterbrook's father was for many years in the grocery and provision business here on Masachusetts avenue near Mount Vernon Street. Mrs. Esterbrook was a native of this town, and a graduate of the Arlington schools. For many years she was bookkeeper at the James O. Holt store on Pleasant street, before leaving to join her husband in Idaho.

In addition to her husband, she leaves one son, Frederick, and one grand-daughter, Carla Mae Fitz-maurice.

Funeral services were held in Spokane Washington, on Thursday, November 3rd, with interment in that city.

Jane G. Fitzsimmons

Funeral services for Mrs. Jane
G. (Phair) Fitzsimmons, of 72
Harlow street widow of the late Michael Fitzsimmons, formerly of Lawrence, who died in Arlington on Thursday, November 17, were

Miss Dorothy Shallow Weds New Bedford Man In Colorful Ceremony

One of the loveliest of the pre-holiday weddings took place on November 11th, at a ten o'clock nuptial mass, held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, in Cambridge, when Miss Dorothy Mary Shallow, daughter of Mrs. Mary M. Shallow and the late Joseph T. Shallow, of 84 Herbert road, Arlington, exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Alfred Hearn Murphy, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Murphy, of New Bedford, Mass. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Daniel Shallow of St. Joseph's Parish, Fall River, Mass., a cousin of the bride. Seated within the sanctuary were the Rev. George P. Callivan, of St. Patrick's church, Lawrence, and the Rev. Felix Penna, S. D. B., of New Rochelle, New York. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. James B. Shallow, of Fall River.

The altar was beautifully decorated with white gladioli, while the pews of the church were festooned with white ribbon and flowers. Mr. Thomas Quinn, of Cambridge, rendered many solos befitting the occasion, accompanied by the organ wedding music.

The bride was radiant in a wedding gown of rare Chantilly lace, and ivory satin, with high neckline and long sleeves, and Cathedral-Imported French illusion veil caught to a tiara of orange blossoms. A bridal bouquet of white roses, stephanotis centered with white orchids, completed her costume.

Miss Virginia M. Shallow, of Arlington, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was lovely in her aqua satin gown with matching mitts, and arm bouquet of American Beauty Roses, with matching coronet of fresh flowers.

The bridesmaids included Miss Ann Carr, Dorchester, and Miss Janet Mulcahy, of Brighton, with Miss Betty Ann Kelliher, of Arlington, serving as junior bridesmaid. The former wore pink satin gowns with matching mitts, and carried arm bouquets of deep pink carnations, with matching coronets of fresh flowers.

The junior bridesmaid wore pink satin, with matching mitts and carried an old fashioned bouquet of flowers, with coronet of matching fresh flowers. The gown of the attendant was light blue, with skin on tulle. Attending the bridegroom was Mr. Francis MacMullen, of New Bedford. The ushers included Mr. Francis Gallagher, of Belmont, cousin of the bride; Mr. William Winsper, of New Bedford, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. Leo Cole, of New Bedford and Mr. Paul Murphy, also of New Bedford.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast and reception were held on the Hotel Sheraton roof, Boston, following which the happy couple departed on their wedding trip via train to Miami Florida. The bride's going away outfit was a coat of dacia brown, white fox collar, winter white hat, brown accessories, and orchid corsage. They plan to make their future home in New Bedford.

The bride has been employed as chief clerk, Design Division, at the Boston Naval Ship yard, but has resigned her position. She is a graduate of the Arlington schools and the Chandler Secretarial school.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Bently school of Accounting, and was a United States Navy war. He is now employed as assistant to the Postmaster at the New Bedford post office.

Injury On Trip South

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gammons, former Arlington high principal, will regret to learn that the latter is in a Richmond, Virginia hospital, as a result of injuries sustained when struck by an automobile last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gammons were on their way to St. Petersburg, Fla., for the winter, when the accident occurred.

According to word received here, Mrs. Gammons was crossing the street near Richmond when struck and was removed at once to the Medical College hospital where it is thought that she will remain for several weeks, before the couple are able to resume their trip to St. Petersburg. While Mrs. Gammons is confined to the hospital, Mr. Gammons is staying at 1005 East Marshall street, Richmond, Va.

Named Organist

Clarence H. Barber, son of Rev. and Mrs. Laurence L. Barber, of this town, was recently appointed organist and choir director at the Wellesley Hills Congregational church. Mr. Barber is at Harvard this year doing graduate work toward his degree in music.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Miss Marjorie Walsh of 9 Shawnee road, attended the Northern New England Business and Professional girls' conference held at Portland, Maine, last weekend. She is advisor to the Beta Gamma, a club of business girls in the business and industrial department of the Boston Y. W. C. A., 140 Clarendon street, Boston.
